3. APPLICABILITY:

This Policy will operate within the framework of the Companies Act, 2013, Rules made thereunder and the Listing Regulations, as amended from time to time.

3.1 DEEMED MATERIAL EVENTS OR INFORMATION:

The Company shall make disclosures of the events as specified in Para A – Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations which are deemed to be material events according to the Listing Regulations, without application of the guidelines for materiality specified in Clause 3.2 below.

3.2 GUIDELINES FOR DETERMINING MATERIALITY OF EVENTS OR INFORMATION:

Materiality will be determined on a case-to-case basis depending on the facts and circumstances pertaining to the event or information.

Qualitative Criteria

The following qualitative criteria will be applicable for determination of materiality of events/information:

1. The omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly;
2. The omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
3. In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (1) and (2) above are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board the event/information is considered material.

Quantitative Criteria

The following quantitative criteria will be applicable for determination of materiality of events/information:

The omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:

1. two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
2. two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
3. five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;

The quantitative criteria shall be read in conjunction with the qualitative criteria for determining materiality and arriving at the overall decision on the event/information to be reported.

3.3. EVENTS OR INFORMATION, CONSIDERED MATERIAL BY BOARD:

Subject to provisions of Clause 3.2, the Company shall make disclosures to the Stock Exchanges of the events and information as specified in Para B – Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations if such events or information are considered material.

Without prejudice to the generality of items specified in Para B – Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, the Company may make disclosures of event/information as specified by the Board of Directors, from time to time.

In respect of the items specified in Para B – Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, if a prompt disclosure is required and it is not feasible and possible to immediately procure Board of Directors approval for the same, then any such disclosure for aforesaid material events/information to Stock Exchanges can be made with approval of Executive Director or Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

4. AUTHORITY FOR DETERMINING MATERIALITY AND DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION:

The Board vide resolution dated May 30, 2025 has severally authorized Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer of the Company ("Authorized Personnel"), to:

- a. review and assess an event or information on the basis of the prevailing facts and circumstances with the objective of ascertaining the materiality of an event/information and deciding whether it qualifies for disclosure, as per this Policy and/ or the Listing Regulations,
- b. determine the appropriate time at which disclosure in relation to a material event/information is to be filed with the Stock Exchanges based on an assessment of actual time of occurrence of such a material event/information;
- c. determine the nature and extent of details in relation to the material event/information that may be disclosed and filed with the Stock Exchanges, keeping in mind the best interest of the present and potential investors of the Company but subject to the Listing Regulations and the relevant acts, rules, regulations, notifications, orders, circulars, clarifications etc. on the subject as may be issued by relevant statutory authorities, from time to time; and
